

Client Pathways – Deputy Team Leader (Full Time) Salary - £30,000-£32,000

Collaborator – Leader – Trauma-Informed – Organised – People-Centred – Empowering – Faith-Led

Do some of the words above describe you? Could you provide compassionate, values-based leadership to a team working with people in crisis? Could your skills in coordination, integration and service delivery help shape life-changing pathways for clients across Bristol?

We're looking for an experienced and values-driven leader to join our Client Pathways Team. This new role will provide additional leadership capacity to the team, ensuring services are well run, clients are effectively engaged, and staff and volunteers are supported to thrive. You'll work closely with the Team Leader to integrate services across inHope venues and develop trauma-informed, co-designed interventions that help clients build their lives beyond crisis.

The charity is a comprehensive service for people which covers a lot of different stages for people at their point of need. It is an incredible example of good work (Previous team-member)
